

Community Food Initiatives (CFI) is a 501c3 non-profit organization located in Athens County, Ohio that works to foster communities where everyone has access to healthy, local food, The organization seeks to foster access to an equitable, inclusive, and thriving local food system in the Appalachian region. CFI is currently looking for an Executive Director who will grow the organization and create a sustainable future.

Responsibilities include:

- Program Management
- Personnel Management
- Grant Acquisition and Fund Development
- Community Engagement
- Strong Interpersonal and Written Communication
- Strategic Planning
- General Administration

Preferred Qualifications Include:

- Commitment to local food access and food justice systems
- Advanced degree
- 5 years experience working with nonprofits
- Demonstrated organizational management
- Strong marketing and public relations skills
- Fundraising success
- Strong written and verbal skills
- Strong planning and program development skills
- Self-directed

Please send cover letter, resume, and three references to Ruth Dudding at dudding@health.athens.oh.us. For questions call, 740-591-5194. We will accept applications until 5:00 p.m. on February 22, 2019. Thank you in advance for your interest.